

WORLD WAR II ERA

SWING DANCE

Celebrating the music and entertainment of

SUGGESTED DONATION: $15

Covers band,
light refreshments and
AGFA's restoration projects

1943

Dance to the classic swing of the Early 1940's as performed by Swingadelic NYC area's Greatest "little big band"
with traditional big band sounds
Swing Dance Lesson 7pm

In the Chapel at Fort Hancock

1940's period attire encouraged 732-872-5970

SATURDAY 19 MAY 2012 7PM - 10:30PM

PART OF THE ANNUAL COASTAL DEFENSE WEEKEND AT FORT HANCOCK, SANDY HOOK, GATEWAY NATIONAL RECREATION AREA

(NPS Spring Guide: <http://www.nps.gov/gate/planyourvisit/upload/GATEspringguide2012SHUrev.pdf>)

Sponsored by the National Park Service and AGFA

Volunteers preserving, restoring and interpreting Fort Hancock's history during World War II

* AGFA – Army Ground Forces Association, an NPS Park Partner and a IRS 501(c)(3) non-profit volunteer historical association
see our work on-line at www.armygroundforces.org