

GENERAL ORDERS, } HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
 } ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
No. 57. } Washington, October 30, 1895.

The following orders have been received from the War Department:

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington, October 30, 1895.

By direction of the President, the fortifications at Sandy Hook, New York Harbor, will hereafter be known and designated as Fort Hancock, in honor of the late Major-General Winfield Scott Hancock, United States Army.

DANIEL S. LAMONT,
Secretary of War.

BY COMMAND OF MAJOR GENERAL MILES:

GEO. D. RUGGLES,
Adjutant General.